

A still life photograph featuring fresh ingredients. In the foreground, a large, knobby piece of ginger sits next to a bunch of sage with silvery-green, velvety leaves. Behind them, a dense bunch of rosemary with needle-like leaves is visible. These items are arranged in and around a rustic, perforated copper colander. The scene is set on a light-colored wooden surface. In the bottom right corner, a small glass bowl contains dried, crushed herbs. The lighting is warm and soft, creating a cozy, natural atmosphere.

welcome

Surrounded by 43 acres of manicured lawns, lush gardens, and rolling Maryland countryside, the Bolger Center, a conference hotel, offers the most exclusive accommodations in Potomac, Maryland. The center features the beautiful Stained Glass Hall, reminiscent of the Gilded Age, which provides a spectacular ambience for weddings, milestones, and meetings.

For us, the key ingredient to a successful event is providing a memorable culinary experience for our guests. That's why we focus so intently on our dining experience and offer vibrant spaces filled with delectable food made with only the freshest ingredients. From food offerings to décor, we strive to inspire people before they take their first bite.

Our award-winning executive chef combines rich ethnic flavors with locally sourced products. Inspired by their own family traditions, our culinary staff incorporates the flavors of numerous countries, including El Salvador, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, and Vietnam. The flavors are bold, unique, and authentic.

But we don't just provide local menu options. We build partnerships that allow us to acquire produce from nearby sources, creating fresher menu options while minimizing our impact on the environment. At any given meal you may actually be enjoying a tomato from our garden behind the dining room, which truly exemplifies "locally grown."

We strive to accommodate all dietary needs, as each guest is just as important as the next. Moreover, we find it gratifying to create healthy options for those who seek them. The only limit to our offerings is your own imagination.

The executive chef has created the menu showcased on the following pages, paying particular attention to local fare and home-style favorites. These menus, however, are only the start of your culinary adventure at the Bolger Center. Our culinarians are constantly creating new menu items and look forward to creating a custom menu for you and your guests.

We hope your taste buds are inspired and we look forward to helping you create a memorable and delicious event.

A close-up photograph of a taco on a piece of parchment paper. The taco is made with a soft, slightly charred tortilla. It is filled with sliced carne asada, a fresh pico de gallo made of diced tomatoes, onions, and cilantro, and a lime wedge. The taco is garnished with a whole lime and a lime wedge. In the background, another taco is visible, also filled with carne asada and pico de gallo. The overall scene is set on a rustic, brown parchment paper background.
